

I am writing to you to ask if you and/or any friend(s) would like to attend

The Huddersfield Association of Women Graduates

LOCAL HISTORY DAY

Saturday 13.03.10

There will be three one-hour lectures:

Digs of Very Early Huddersfield – David Cockman, Hudds Arch. Soc.

Early Suburban Growth in the 19thC. – Cyril Pearce, ex Senior Lecturer in History at Bretton College

Stories behind WW1 War Memorials – Dr Ann Brook

There will also be several displays

It will be held at Newsome South Methodist Church, Birch Road, Berry Brow, Huddersfield, HD4 7LP. It is a one-storey building - all on one level and with a toilet for the disabled. Cars are put in the Church Car Park or on-street.

Registration is from 09.15 and the last coffee will be served at 09.50. There will have to be strict attention to promptness to fit in the programme which ends at 16.00. A pre-lunch alcoholic drink will be served and it will be followed by a very good two-course buffet with an orange drink and coffee. Please let me know a.s.a.p. if you and possibly others are coming. Please give names. The total cost will be £20.00pp paid in advance to HAWG by 24.02.09 (no receipt/ticket is sent). I look forward to seeing you.

Best wishes - Lynn F. Free, Eileen Twigg and Barbara Sherwood
