

Rules on posting a message on the Huddersfield & District Family History Society Forum.

It is the strict policy of the Committee of the Huddersfield and District Family History Society, that the Forum sections of this website are available for use by both members and non members, but the Forum is restricted and is only to be used for individuals who are seeking information in relation to Family History Research and Local History. All other matters must be communicated to the secretary who will present them to the committee.

Please remember that we are not responsible for any messages posted. We do not vouch for or warrant the accuracy, completeness or usefulness of any message, and we are not responsible for the contents of any message.

The messages express the views of the author of the message. Any user who feels that a posted message is objectionable is encouraged to contact us immediately by email. We have the ability to remove any objectionable messages and will make every effort to do so, within a reasonable time frame, if we determine that removal is necessary.

You agree, through your use of this forum, that you will not use this forum to post any material which is knowingly false, defamatory, inaccurate, abusive, vulgar, hateful, harassing, obscene, profane, sexually oriented, threatening, invasive of a person's privacy, or otherwise violative of any law.

No individual must post any copyrighted material on the forum, unless that individual owns the copyright to that material.

We reserve the right to edit or delete without notice, any postings, which we deem to be inappropriate or against the rules of the forum.
